

TUNDRA BOOKS

Maxwell Newhouse

Maxwell Newhouse is one of the country's most accomplished folk artists. His work is exhibited in galleries across Canada. He is well known for his paintings of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, which are gathered together for the first time in The RCMP Musical Ride. He has illustrated three books for Tundra, including Emily Carr: At the Edge of the World by Jo Ellen Bogart, and Laura Secord by Janet Lunn. He lives in Cultus Lake, British Columbia.

Illustrated by Maxwell Newhouse

The RCMP Musical Ride (Tundra) *	2004
Emily Carr: At the Edge of the World (Tundra)	2003
Laura Secord: A Story of Courage (Tundra)	2001

* written & illustrated by Maxwell Newhouse

Praise for Max's Work

"The finely detailed line drawings...by folk artist Maxwell Newhouse capture the very essence of Emily [Carr]'s appearance, her charming pets, and her vigorous creativity...Highly Recommended."

- CM Magazine

"Folk artist Maxwell Newhouse supplies airy, whimsical pen-and-ink line drawings that provide a nice contrast to the brooding intensity of Carr's oils."

-Quill & Quire